

Heterocyclic Letters

Transfer of Copyright Agreement

Publishers and authors share a common interest in the protection of copyright: authors principally because they want their creative work to be protected from plagiarism and other unlawful uses, publishers because they need to protect their work and investment in the publication, marketing and distribution of the article written by the author(s) for each article being published. We therefore would like you to complete and return this form, retaining a copy for your records.

To,
The Editor-in-Chief,
Heterocyclic Letters

Title of Manuscript: -----

Type of Manuscript: (Research/ Review/Short Communications/others): -----

Author(s) name(s): -----

Declaration

1. The author(s) warrant that the manuscript submitted is his/her/their own original work. All authors contributed in the work and take public responsibility for the work. All authors have approved the manuscript. The manuscript has not been communicated elsewhere for publication. The matter included in the manuscript does not infringe upon any existing copyright or any other copyright material. The manuscript does not violate any intellectual property right of any person or entity. The manuscript meets ethical standards applicable to the research discipline.
2. All materials related to manuscripts, accepted or rejected, including figures, schemes etc., will be kept by Heterocyclic Letters for two years or as per the Editor-in-Chief's decision. These materials will then be destroyed.

3. We indemnify that the Journal or its editors shall not be held liable for any loss, expense or damage occasioned by a claim or suit by a third party for copyright infringement, or any suit arising out of any breach of the foregoing warranties as a result of publication of my/our article.
4. The undersigned with the consent of all the authors, hereby transfer, to the extent that there is copyright to be transferred, the exclusive copyright interest in the above-cited manuscript, in this and all subsequent editions of this manuscript, and in derivatives, translations or ancillaries, in English and in foreign translations, in all formats and media of expression now known or later developed, including electronic, to the Heterocyclic Letters.

After submission of this agreement signed by the corresponding author and co-authors, changes of authorship or in the order of the authors listed will not be accepted.
